FOREWORD

Although it is a book which has as its basic purpose, the preservation of the annual school records of classes, clubs, sports, and other scholastic activities, it is hoped that THE 1960 SPECTATOR will also help to preserve, in part, many of the memories related to the Class of 1960.

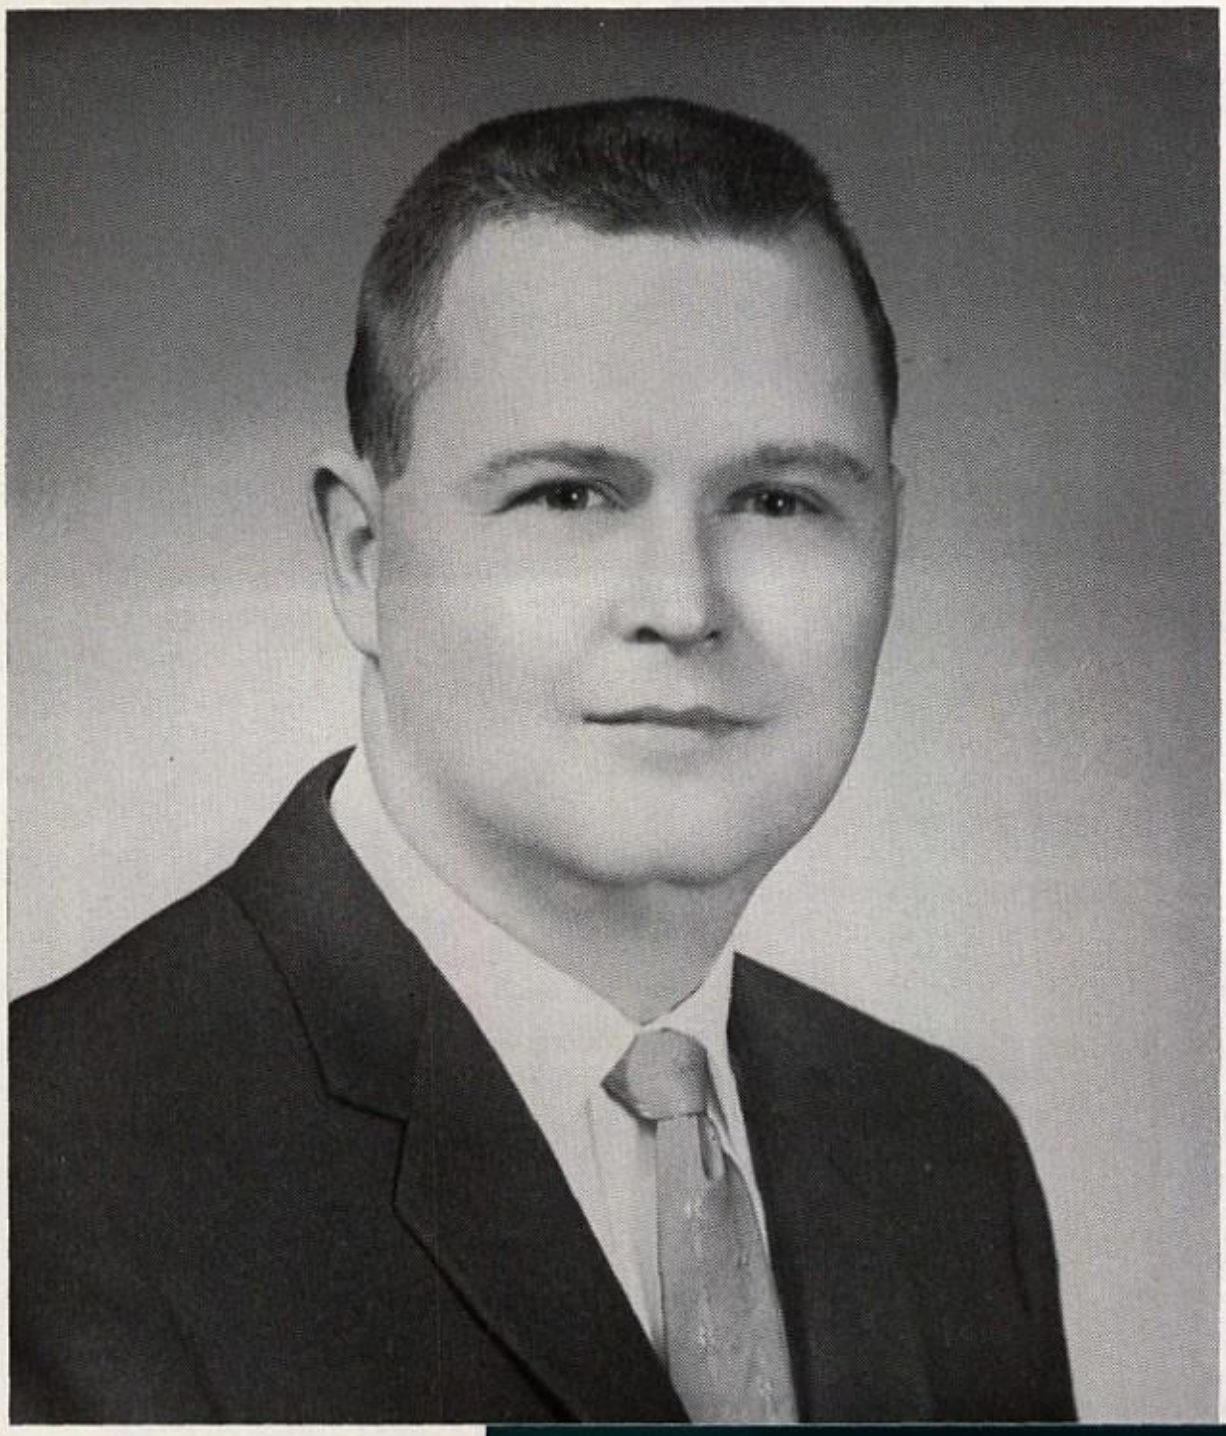
1960 SPECTATOR



Dedication

In grateful acknowledgment of his patience and understanding as our teacher, and his sincerity as our friend,

We, the class of '60, dedicate this Spectator to

People

Activities

Sports

In varying degrees, many people have influenced the lives and education of the members of the graduating class. Among those people must be included the names and photographs of the administrators, teachers, underclassmen, and especially their fellow classmates.

Class Memoirs

Today we are together, but tomorrow we must part
Our ties are binding, but new lives we must start.
Before we depart on graduation day
To follow rainbows far, far away,
Please let us return once more, to delve
Back through our high school years nine through twelve.
We are living in the Spectacular 60's, did I hear you say?
Let me take you back and show you who made it this way.

We 200 FRESHMEN entered that ivy-framed door
Our aim, to change VHS for ever more.
Did we get lost in the halls? nay, nay, nay.
Though things were new, we found our way.
We studied hard, and we also had fun
What a relief when finally Caesar was done!
Though we loved our Freshman year, we looked forward, you see
Toward the next year, when another class of frosh behind us would be.

Coming back as SOPHOMORES, we discovered we were a little afraid
For this was the year many of our decisions were to be made.
We found out what "burning the midnight oil" really meant
And many of our evenings over biology and history questions in this way were spent.
Our Sophomore year was over very fast
Finally we were to be upperclassmen at last.

Upperclassmen at last, JUNIORS were we
It's hard to believe how important one class could be.
Our subjects seemed a little easier, we did find
Even Mr. D's cards we didn't really mind.
We elected Jimmy Notarnicola to be our worthy president.
And to the office of vice-president, Junie Pugliese we sent.
Monica Jasenak, because of her ability
Was chosen Junior Class secretary.
And Lenny Calderone was elected to handle our class treasury.
Our class flower, the gardenia went just right
With our class colors green and white.
"Purpose is what gives life meaning," our class motto,
We promised always to try our best to follow.
The time flew by because we had so much to do
And all too soon another year at VHS was through.

We 204 SENIORS came back with our heads in a cloud.
We did everything this year, (everything we weren't allowed).
In all the school's activities we had our way
At least, that's what we'll always say.
We elected Jimmy Notarnicola class president, again,
And to assist Jim we chose popular Garry Huffman.
Callie Bobo was chosen to be our secretary
And we picked Gary McLaughlin to guard our class treasury.
Barbara Dell was retained to write its history.
And Mr. McBride, because of his great popularity,
Was chosen to be our Spectator dedicatee.

Many more memories by us were had
Most were good, some were bad
I've tried to be funny, to keep the spirit light
But our high school days are over, now, our future's in sight.
Even though we're bidding farewell to dear old VHS,
Fond memories will bring us back often to reminisce,
for, "We, thy sons and daughters, love thee.
Homage we would pay.
Vandergrift, our dear old high school,
Thee, we'll love for aye."
